Program Description

Questar III's Regional Summer School Program is held throughout Columbia and Greene county school districts for remedial support for all middle school courses and most high school courses. This program is for students who achieved 50 percent or better but did not achieve a passing grade. Summer program courses meet all New York State Education summer school program mandates and averages 15 students per summer course. We also now offer an elementary program for AIS support and enrichment in some areas.

August Regents exams offered by the New York State Education Department are offered at the Questar III Summer Program sites.

Note: This program is not intended for students who are either taking the course for a first time or who have passed the course and seek a higher grade.

Additional Information

- Cost Methodology: Costs are based on projected enrollment and districts pay per course. The August Regents test administration fee is included in the district program costs.
