Program Description

Questar III's Teacher of the Visually Impaired (Related Service) supports blind or visually impaired students enrolled in Questar III classrooms. Services are provided through individual sessions tailored to meet each student's learning needs or through consultant services. During individual sessions, students learn a variety of adaptive skills and use state-of-the-art technology. If working as a consultant to classroom staff, the TVI provides and modifies resource materials geared to the individual student. This service runs September - June with extended year service available.
